

CURRICULUM VITAE - Una Rose Hogan

DOB:10/08/1983
1 Cow Hill, Norwich, NR2 1EZ, UK.
Phone: 00353 86 3797232
e-mail (private): unarose@campus.ie
e-mail (work): u.hogan@uea.ac.uk

EDUCATION – THIRD LEVEL

- 2010-
2011 Post Graduate Certificate Medical Education
University of Dundee, Scotland, UK.
Clinical education, Curriculum Development, Enquiry based learning, IT in education.
- 2006-
2008 Master of Science International Health
Sheffield Hallam University, Sheffield, UK.
Epidemiology, International Diseases, Public Health, Migration Health, HIV, Malaria.
Final thesis 'Examining the impact of economic immigration from the expanded EU countries on TB incidence in Ireland'.
- 2005-
2006 Bachelor of Science Nursing
Napier University, Edinburgh, Scotland, UK.
Infection Control, Evidence Based Medicine, Research Methods, Diabetes.
- 2001-
2004 Diploma in Adult Nursing
National University of Ireland, Galway, Ireland.
- 2001-
2003 Diploma sa Ghaeilge (Diploma in Irish Language)
National University of Ireland, Galway, Ireland.

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

- April
2010-
Currently Lecturer, Infection Control, Patient Safety and Innovation, School of Nursing Sciences, Faculty of Health, University of East Anglia, Norwich, UK.
- Nursing sciences school lead in infection control, patient safety and innovation across all nursing branches, midwifery and operating department practice. Overall responsibility for curriculum development, quality assurance, assessments, skills development and delivery of content.
  - Module lead for postgraduate infection prevention control programme for nurses and midwives.
  - Committee member and curriculum developer for new ERASMUS MUNDUS Master in 'Immigrant Health'. This is an international collaboration among six european universities lead by University of Pec's, Hungary, responsible for development of epidemiology curriculum.
  - Reviewer for International Journal of Mental Health Nursing and International Journal of Infection Control.
  - Enquiry based learning facilitator for undergraduate nursing students.
  - Inter-professional learning facilitator for undergraduate nursing, medical and allied health profession students.
  - A number of associated academic responsibilities including, marker and moderator for student assessments, academic advisor for a range of undergraduate and post graduate students, link lecturer with clinical areas, university library school link and student interviewer.
  - Developed and delivered a number of individual study days including 'Travel Medicine' and 'Community Infection Control - Clinical Skills' and 'Central Venous Catheter Care'.
  - Champion the schools international links with Malawi and advise and co-ordinate student elective placements in developing countries.
  - Conducted a five month part time Acute Medical Unit secondment for the university hospital to develop nurse competence. Outcomes included the development of a nurse competence pathway; a research bid for SDO funding and the development of a PhD studentship.
  - Actively engage in research and enterprise on behalf of the faculty and represent university at relevant local fora and conferences'.

- Feb 2009 – Feb 2010 Maternal, Neonatal and Child Health Officer, World Health Organization, Country Office, Tirana, Albania.
- Under WHO's 'Make Pregnancy Safer' programme, provided technical input to the implementation of the MNCH project, including Effective Perinatal Care, School Health Services and Integrated Management of Childhood Illness. Collaborated with WHO head office and other international consultants to achieve project objectives.
  - Worked with the Institute of Quality Control and Accreditation and the Ministry of Health on national standards for Mother and Child Health including drafting of obstetric and pediatric national protocols.
  - Conducted quality of care, maternity hospital assessments in project pilot sites to inform subsequent national policy.
  - Collaborated with nursing institutes in the establishment of an Order of Nurses in Albania, organized technical study tour with the Irish Nursing Board.
  - Worked with the Ministry of Health and Faculty of Medicine on human resources for health issues such as continuous medical education, information systems, skill mix, clinical protocol development.
  - Liaised with local NGO's working in MNCH and represented WHO at relevant fora.
  - Collaborated with UNICEF and FAO country offices, in writing a joint project spanning infant nutrition, involved in setting strategic objectives and technical requirements.
  - Developed an assessment tool for hospital infection control and conducted assessments in tertiary centers for feedback to the Ministry of Health. Performed subsequent consultancies for MOH following the feedback from the initial assessments.
  - Presented a paper I developed based on original qualitative research - 'Tirana's Roma Community- Barriers to accessing healthcare' at United Nations Development Project EURO conference.
- Sep 2007- Feb 2009 Adult Nursing Tutor, Pre- Nursing FETAC level 5 Programme.
North Tipperary Vocational Education Committee, Colaiste Pobal Roscrea, Roscrea, Co. Tipperary, Ireland.
- Sep 2007- Feb 2009 Adult Education Tutor, SKILLSVEC, FETAC level 5 Programme.
North Tipperary Vocational Education Committee, Teach an Leinn, Nenagh, Co. Tipperary, Ireland.
- March 2007 - Aug 2007 Community Nurse, Ripple Africa, Malawi.
Kachere Health Care Clinic, Matete, Nkhata Bay District, Malawi.
- May 2006- May 2007 Staff Nurse, Sunshine Unit.
Dooradoyle, Mid Western Regional Hospital, Limerick, Ireland.
- Dec 2005- April 2006 Staff Nurse, Medical Unit.
Royal Infirmary Hospital, Edinburgh, EH2 3ZJ.
- June 2005- Dec 2005 Staff Nurse, South Africa,
Sarah Fox Center, Silvertown, Athlone, Capetown, South Africa.
- Jan 2005 - June 2005 Staff Nurse, Medical.
St. Josephs Hospital, Nenagh, Co. Tipperary, Ireland.

Additional Courses & Training

---

2010	Paediatric HIV	PENTA-ESPID, Rome
2010	Cardio-Pulmonary Resuscitation	Norfolk and Norwich University Hospital
2010	Manual Handling + updated annually	Norfolk and Norwich University Hospital
2010	Teaching and Assessing in the Clinical Setting	University of East Anglia
2010	Intravenous Drug Policy and Administration	Norfolk and Norwich University Hospital

2009	Human Resources for Health, Policy and Planning	WHO, Albania
2009	School Health Services Development in Transition Countries	WHO, Albania
2009	Family, Community Individual involvement in Health, (WHO IMCI) Programme	WHO, Albania
2009	Gender & Health Capacity Building Workshop	WHO, Albania
2009	Development Studies Introduction	Irish Aid, Dublin
2007	Further Education Tutor Training	Vocational Education Committee, Ireland
2005	Healthcare Records on Trial	La Touché-Band Salon
1999	Diploma in Public Speaking	Leinster school of Music

Achievements & Affiliations

---

2010	Finalist in UK Universities Young Thinker of the Year Awards for an essay I wrote entitled 'Disease of Conceit' concerning global warming and its' potential impact on the future of infectious disease in the UK.
2008	Volunteered in Guaerdias del Ninos, Orphanage Escazu, Costa Rica.
2004	Roof of Africa charity challenge, Croi West of Ireland Cardiology Foundation. Charity challenge involving fundraising and physical challenge to summit Mt. Kenya (18,900ft), Africa's second highest mountain, and a 7 day cycling challenge in the Masai Mara.

Affiliations:	Registered General Nurse, An Bord Altrainis (Irish Nursing Board), Ireland. Registered General Nurse, Nursing and Midwifery Council UK. Member CHIVA (Children's HIV Association) Paediatric HIV network, Europe. Public Health Delegate for Irish Aids Rapid Response Corps for Humanitarian Disasters.
----------------------	---

Referees: Available upon request

---